EVANS BRIGGS
PASSES AWAYDies from the Effects of Wounds
Inflicted by His Brother.

OUR SUFFOLK LETTER

Further Particulars of the Rash Deed of Raymond Briggs—The Family
Persists in Maintaining Silence
Council Wants Bids for City Lighting—New Manufacturing Plant to be Established.

(Special to Virginian-Pilot.)

Suffolk, Va., Dec. 6.—Richard Evans Briggs, who was Monday night shot in Baltimore by a brother, Raymond Briggs, is dead, aged 32 years. Mr. A. S. Eley, whose wife is a sister of Briggs, had a telegram this afternoon telling of the end, but failing to name the hour. The wire was from George S. Briggs, who lives in Norfolk, but who arrived in Baltimore this morning. Mrs. Eley left for Baltimore to-night.

The burial arrangements haven't been made yet. It is not known whether the interment will be in Suffolk or Hollywood, Richmond. The dead man's brother, the late Dr. George Briggs, and other members of the family rest in Hollywood.

RICHARD EVANS BRIGGS was born in Nansemond county, but was brought to Suffolk when a child. He grew to manhood here. Since then he has been engaged mostly in the lumber business at Norfolk, Winston, N. C., Baltimore and other points.

He leaves a widow. He was first married in Norfolk to a lady some years his senior, from whom he has since been divorced. The deceased was a brother of Mrs. Eley, Suffolk; the late Attorney Merritt Briggs, Suffolk; Prof. W. W. Briggs, Locust Dale; Geo. S. Briggs, Norfolk, and Miss Jennie Briggs, who is now in Kentucky—all well known and popular.

The following additional information of interest is from to-day's Baltimore American:

NOT ALLOWED BAIL.
"Raymond Briggs was yesterday committed to jail by Justice Roberts, at the Northwestern Police Station, without bail. He will be given a hearing on January 5, unless the injured man dies before that time, in which event he will be arraigned at once."

"The accused was sent to jail in the morning, but before his departure both Captain Baker and Lieutenant Manning endeavored to secure a statement from him. To Lieutenant Manning he admitted the shooting, saying that it was done in self-defense. Asked whether his brother was intoxicated at the time, he said that he was. To all other questions he said that he did not wish to talk further. He inquired several times as to the condition of his brother, however."

"The wife and mother of the injured man called at the hospital in the morning, but were not allowed to see him. No one went to see the accused brother, not even a lawyer being called in. At the Briggs home all visitors were met with a reply that Mrs. Briggs was sick."

"The man who was shot was employed as a superintendent and confidential manager for Charles H. Bruns & Co., lumber dealers, at the corner of Eastern avenue and Concord street. He ran the affairs of the concern to a large extent and was held in esteem as a most trustworthy and valuable man. Mr. Bruns, in speaking of him yesterday, said that he had never known Briggs to be drunk, in fact, had never known that he touched liquor. He was greatly surprised at the statement that the injured man was drunk at the time of the shooting, saying that his friends did not know that he touched liquor in any form."

THE FAMILY RETICENT.

The Baltimore News of yesterday afternoon says in part:

"Other members of the family refuse to disclose even simple facts of family relationship. Raymond Briggs was arraigned before Justice Roberts this morning, but refused to make any statement. To Lieutenant Manning, in answer to questions, he said later: 'I shot him in self-defense. That's all I want to say. So far as I know, he never objected to any attentions I showed his wife. I often went out with her, and took her riding the last time Friday.'"

WANT BIDS FOR LIGHTING.

The Town Council is fixing to advertise for bids for lighting the town. The present contract with the electric light company runs out a year from next January, and the Council wants to give other corporations a chance to build a plant and bid.

This was an adjourned meeting of the Council.

OFFICERS' NOVEMBER REPORT.
Mayor's fines, $29; Sergeant's collections, $20; Treasury balance, general fund, $6,845.00.

CHARTER CHANGES.

Mr. Pinner was appointed to recommend some necessary changes in the town charter.

In response to a request from the King's Daughters a burial lot in Cedar Hill was donated to them for use of worthy indigents.

NEW TRUCK PACKAGE PLANT.

Messrs. Miner & McClellan, proprietors of the Nansemond Truck Package Company, have decided to build an-
